

Atlas Pearls Dreamtime Project

Fresh blooms and pearls set the scene for the launch of the Dreamtime Project at Atlas Pearls. Barry McGuire welcomed guests with a heart-warming speech while guests enjoyed free-flowing champagne and delightful canapes before Tony Shaw wove his didgeridoo sounds with Yabu Band, mesmerising the crowd. MC Narelda Jacobs introduced three of the stunning Aboriginal girls undertaking the Dreamtime Project, a programme designed to empower and build self-esteem in our indigenous youth. Spotted in the crowd were Atlas Pearls ambassador Claudia Berterello-Kell, Christina Morrissey Everett, Roma and Doug Brooks, Sylvia Giacci, Jeremy Balius and Margy Hegney Hall.

WORDS BERNADETTE BOSNAC

PICTURES JOHN KOH

Have you been photographed in
Out & About? Visit

thewest.com.au/outandabout

Narelda Jacobs , Lisa-Marie Rodd, Katina Coffin & Tiahna Oxenham

Sam
McManus

Lenore, Doug & Roma Brooks

Anne & Dean Pesic

Lesley Hart & Bianca Wheeler

Claudia
Bertorello-Kell

Lauren
Haynes