

Dropsuite expands U.S. cloud marketplace partnership with Ingram Micro

03 Aug 2017

The company has launched email backup and archiving solutions

Dropsuite's share price has increased by 23% in the past one week

Dropsuite Ltd (ASX:DSE) has expanded its distribution partnership with Ingram Micro Inc. (NYSE:IM), with the availability of a new product on the Ingram Micro Cloud Marketplace.

Dropsuite's new email backup and archiving solutions will now join the company's cloud-based website backup and monitoring service in the U.S.

Hosted and managed by Ingram Micro, Cloud Marketplace is an automated e-commerce platform that provides an end-to-end portfolio of more than 200 vetted cloud services.

Dropsuite started out in 2012 and is headquartered in Singapore with a sales presence in the U.S., Europe, Japan, and Australia.

The company has partnered with some of the biggest global names in the hosting and IT service provider market, including GoDaddy and Ingram Micro.

With this latest expansion in partnership, Dropsuite's email backup and archiving services will now be available to managed service providers and value-added resellers in the U.S.

The new services are fully compatible with Microsoft Office 365 and most other email systems, enabling channel partners to increase their cross-sell potential.

The company's share price has increased by 23% in the past one week, last trading at A$0.081

<http://www.proactiveinvestors.com.au/companies/news/181890/dropsuite-expands-us-cloud-marketplace-partnership-with-ingram-micro-181890.html>