

Gulf Manganese appoints Craig Munro as Non-Executive Chairman

Sunday, February 7, 2016 Richard Fortune

The Board of Gulf Manganese Corporation Ltd (ASX:GMC) has announced that it has completed its search for a new Chairman following the unexpected death of Graham Anderson in July 2015.

Craig Munro joins the Board effective immediately as non-executive Chairman, allowing Peter Williams to revert to his role as non-executive director. Concurrently Hamish Bohannan has taken the role of Managing Director as planned and Michael Walters has resigned from the Board.

Craig Munro is a Certified Practising Accountant with over 40 years' experience in the mining industry. He has been both an executive director and non-executive director of a number of listed companies since 1990. Craig will bring both strong financial skills to the Board as well as strong corporate governance.

Michael Walters joined the Board in October 2013 bringing strong marketing skills to the Company. The Board thanked Michael for his strong commitment to its Indonesian Manganese Smelting Project

<http://mininghive.com/news/1757/gulf-manganese-appoi>