

Market Wrap: Aus shares close 2.07% higher September 09, 2015

05:26 PM

It has been a stellar session for the local share market, finishing the day 2.07 per cent higher, as a rally in Asian markets seemed to rub off onto Aussie investors. Japan's share market in particular has led the bull-run and is on its way to its biggest one-day gain since the Global Financial Crisis.

The S&P/ASX 200 index closed up 106 points to finish at 5,221.

The value of trades was $6.8 billion on volume of 1.01 billion shares at the close of trade. The top three stocks by value were Commonwealth Bank of Australia (ASX:CBA), ANZ Banking Group (ASX:ANZ), Westpac Banking Corporation (ASX:WBC).

On the futures market the SPI is up 125 points.

IPOs

Knosys Limited (ASX:KNO) started trading today. The software development and licensing company listed with an issue price of 20 cents, opened at 22 cents and a closed at 23 cents.

http://www.finnewsnetwork.com.au/archives/finance_news_network121121.html