

Microcaps in Melbourne

Velvet-Belle Templeman October 24, 2019

The 10th Annual Australian Microcap Investment Conference was held in Melbourne this week at the Sofitel on Collins. Held over two days, the conference delivered keynote speakers, presenting companies and industry representation across Diversified Financials, Capital Goods, Utilities, Healthcare, Biotechnology and more.

The conference being the “largest and most comprehensive emerging company investment event” in the country, provided investors with the opportunity to hear from CEOs across 27 Australian companies. 11 of these have a market capitalisation beyond $500 million, and four of which have grown a market cap greater than $1 billion.

Joel Fleming, Fund Manager of UBS Microcap Fund and Peter Switzer, Founder of the Switzer Report delivered separate keynote addresses, discussing investing in Microcaps, emerging businesses and technologies in the space as well as indicators to watch when investing in the sector.

Institutional investors, analysts, brokers and members of the business community utilised the networking opportunities throughout the conference across a range of lunches, presentations and networking drinks.

Boardroom.Media is proud to have been a media partner at the event, gaining insights from some of the leading innovative companies in the sector.
